SCHOOL BELL ECHOES OF 1960

BAUGO TOWNSHIP SCHOOL
RURAL ROUTE #4
ELKHART, INDIANA

Full of initiative and eagerness the 1960 yearbook staff have produced what they believe is the best yearbook ever created.

Teamwork was the key work with this staff. They worked together as one of their duties of writing copy, typing, drawing up pages, taking pictures, meeting deadlines, and many others.

The staff consisted of Dana Clipp as editor, Rose DeBowe, Terry Struble, Connie Kauffman, Glennia Main, Sharon Squires, Ann Nitchell, Doris Holt, Jerry Sailor, Vicki Davis, Jean Swanson, John Troup, and Gerhard Wolk. Steve Miller and John Troup were the staff photographers. Although the staff worked hard, they couldn't have produced the yearbook without the wonderful help and guidance of Mrs. Heeter. Her strenuous efforts led the way through every difficulty.

As you leaf through this book, you will feel the blending of personalities of each individual member of the staff contributing their part making possible your yearbook for 1960.

PRINCIPAL

Ann Nitchell and Mr. Miller

Mr. Richard Miller has been principal at Jimtown for two years. He taught school five years before coming to Jimtown. He graduated from Indiana University. He has an M.A. and B.A. degree.

SECRETARY

Our school secretary for the past eleven years has been Mrs. Ruth James. Mrs. James has many daily duties such as typing, selling text books, taking messages, running errands, and occasionally she plays the role of a nurse when administering first aid to a student. Her tasks are many and she does them with skill and accuracy.

She attended Goshen College and Indiana State Teachers College. Mrs. James taught elementary students for five years before becoming secretary for Jimtown School.

SUPERINTENDENT

SECRETARY

Mrs. Jean Buss has been associated with the Baugo Township for three years. At the present time she is serving as secretary to Lowell Sheets, superintendent.

Mr. Sheets and Terry Struble

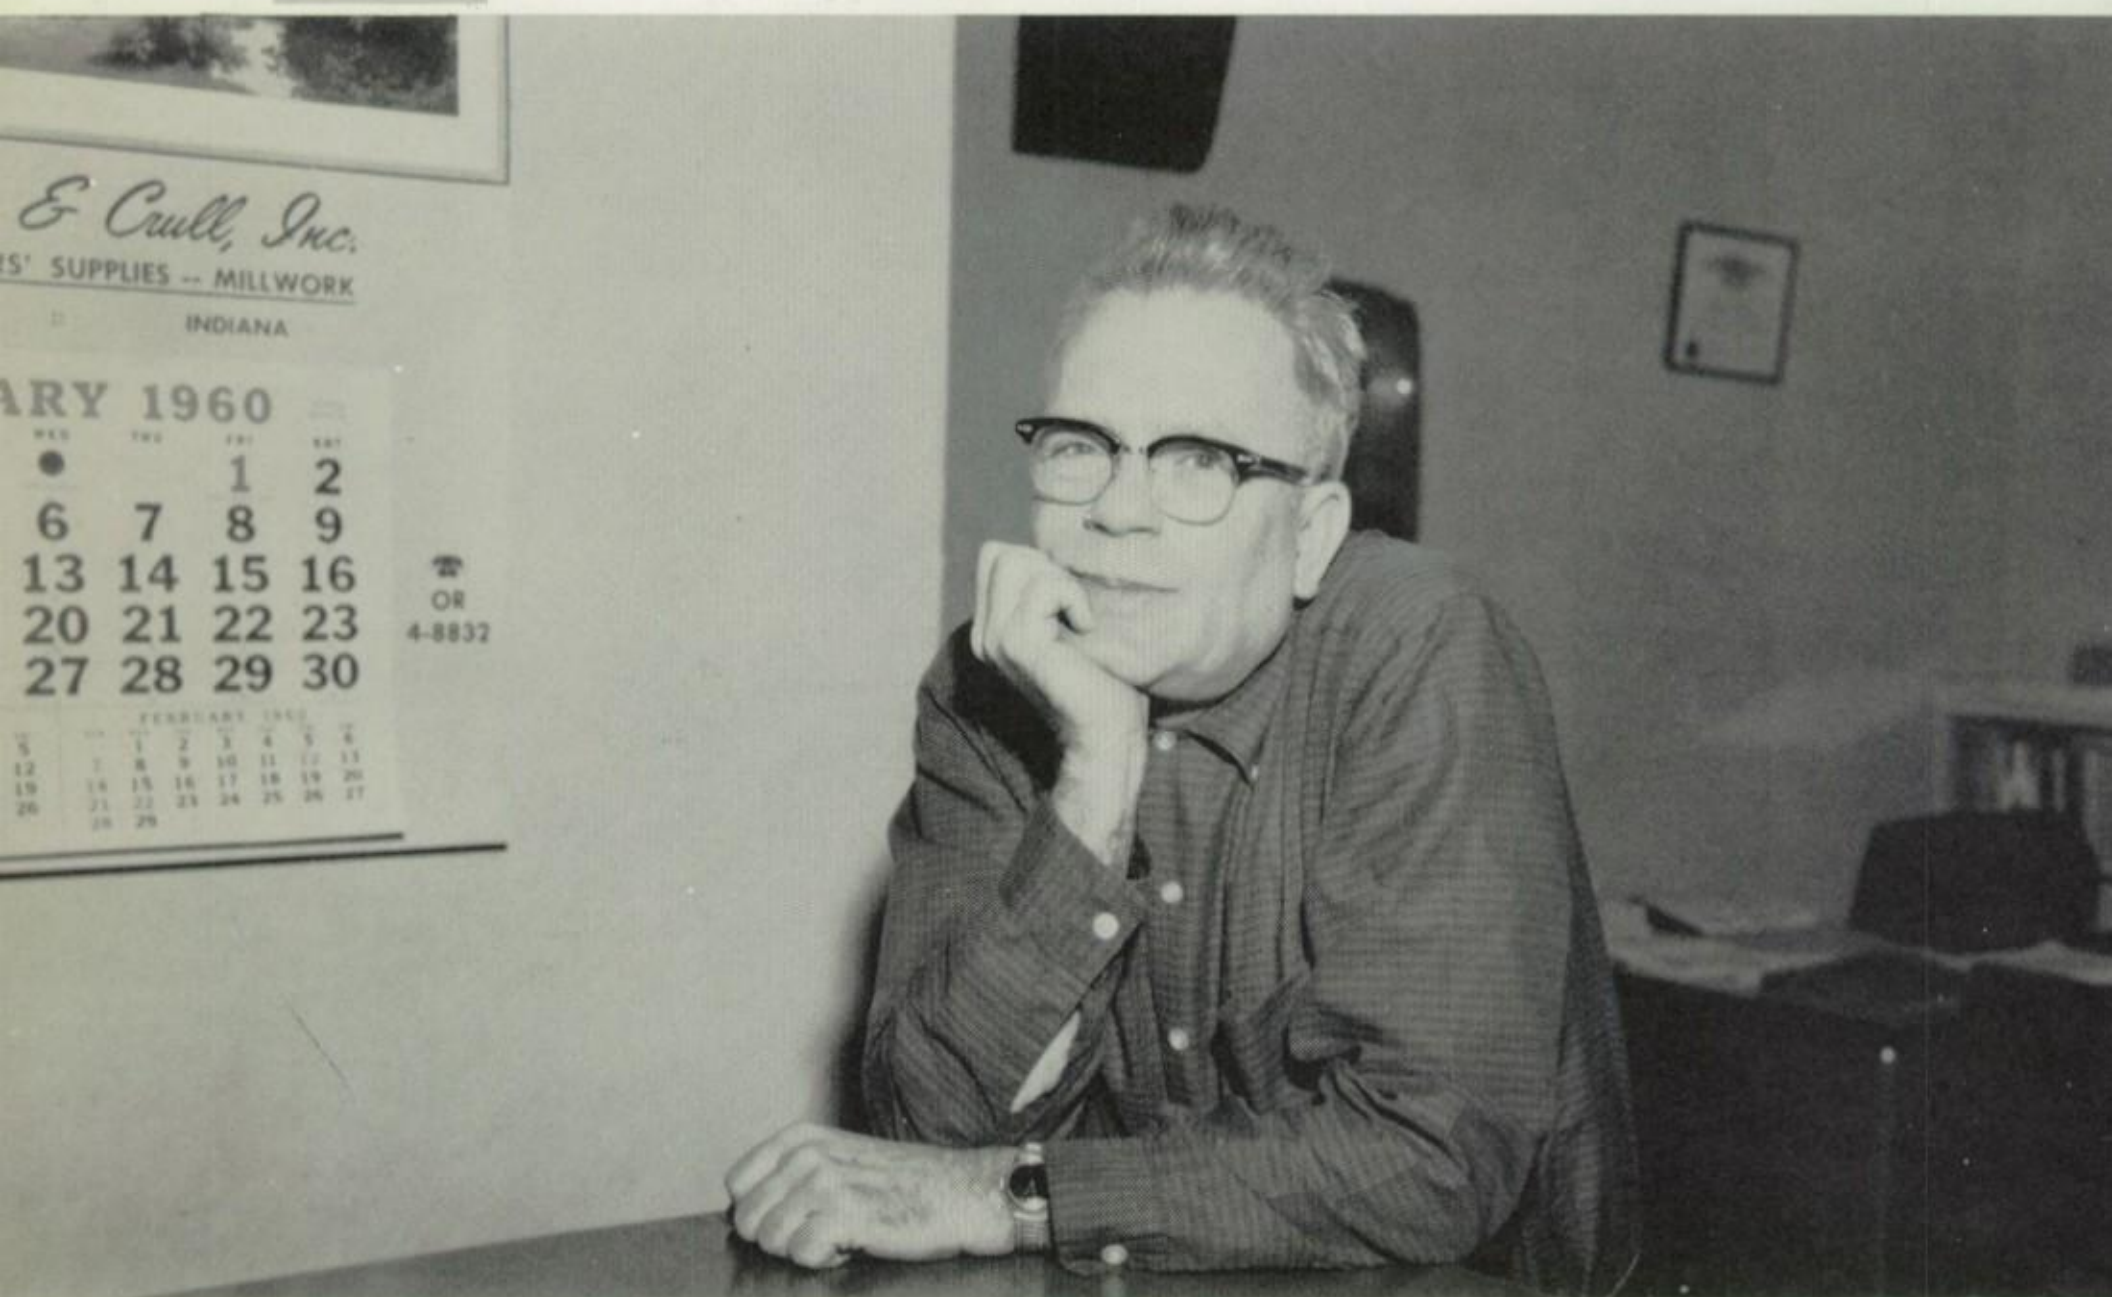

Mr. Sheets, former principal for three years, is now the school superintendent. He taught school for twenty-six years. He taught mathematics, science, physical education, and chemistry. Before becoming principal here at Jimtown, Mr. Sheets received his B.S. degree at Indiana University.

SCHOOL BOARD

Mr. Kauffman, Mr. Diefenbaugh, Mrs. Forrester, Mr. Heffner, Mr. Cook

IN APPRECIATION

The class of 1960 wishes to express their appreciation to Mr. Arthur Knepp who sponsored their class during their last two years in high school.

Mr. Knepp has put in many long and hard hours in activities which the class has carried out.

To Mr. Knepp we say a great big "Thanks" for what he has done for us.

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK . . .

Education today means more than just learning the three "R's"—much more. It includes all the other courses offered in our modern educational system taught here in Baugo Township.

Along with the educational part of school is the fun, laughter, excitement, and training that come from our clubs, activities, classmates, and our sports.

The different sections of our book can be located on the following pages:

Faculty — 9-18
Album — 19-42
Sports — 43-58
Activities — 59-80
Clubs — 81-102
Ads — 103-160

In later years, while turning these pages, if you should recall the many smiles, sorrows, and dreams of "60", a feeling of contentment will overwhelm me, knowing that the job that the staff and I were called upon to do was accomplished successfully.

Dana Clipp, Editor

Dana Clipp

Editor Dana Clipp plans the yearbook.

"We're in love," sighs Rose DeBowe.

Seniors combine work with fun.

BUS DRIVERS

These are the men that produce that miracle in front of your house every morning, the school bus. No matter what the weather is they are always faithfully there to take you to school.

My Bus Driver

COOKS

Noon is a busy time for these cooks who prepare our meals, serve them to us, and clean up our tables afterwards.

Mrs. Maygar, Mrs. Lape, Mrs. Kindig, Mrs. Stickel, Mrs. BeMiller.

JANITORS

Mr. Newcomer, Mrs. Struble, and Mr. Wenger.

Back and forth in the aisle these people sweep and sweep in our class rooms to keep them clean for us.

FACULTY

Jump, Martha Cervenak.

A few of the things learned in physical education are coordination, body building, and flexibility. Basketball, volleyball, softball, kick-ball, and socker are taught. Biology students dissect earthworms, star fish, cray fish, and frogs.

Best Teacher

Health is the study of you and your personality. The students study the composition of body tissues, organs, and cells. They learn what foods are needed for energy, growth, and repair of the body.

MR. GORDON BOHS
B.A., Purdue University
seventh grade mathematics, health, physical education, and is the junior high basketball coach.

And this is where the heart is.

Alice Pappas, Cheryl Davidson, and Rex Winningham discuss biology.

MISS MARY BAUMGARTNER

advanced algebra, trigonometry, general trade mathematics.

The government students studied the local, township, state, and federal governments. They also learned how to fill out income tax forms.

In world history the sophomores started their studies from the beginning of civilization to the present time.

In trigonometry the boys worked with their slide rules and solved different kinds of problems.

General science boys watch the evaporation of water.

In applied science the pupils studied the basic material concerning the physical sciences which include chemistry, physics, astronomy, geology, and meteorology. These are all non-living sciences.

In the physical education classes they attempted to develop muscular co-ordination. They also tried to develop carry-over activities which may be used by a person in future years.

In chemistry the students studied the many changes that matter undergoes. They studied about atoms, compounds, physical and chemical changes, physical and chemical properties.

Karen Hunt, Judy Troup, and Sharon Newman rehearse.

ORIGINAL SENIORS

In September of 1948 the class of 1960 entered Jamestown High School. They were divided into two groups. Some of the original seniors were in Mrs. Myer's room and some in Mrs. Gundon's. We continued in the second grade with Mrs. Gannon and Miss Pletcher. In the third grade our teachers were Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Grove. In the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades, our teachers were Mrs. Weller, Miss Grove, Mrs. Swihart, Mr. Rogers, and Miss Housour. Then we entered junior high. Our junior high teachers were Mr. Weldy, Mr. Hess, Mr. Weaver, and Mr. Secor. After we entered high school, we elected sponsors. Our freshman year we elected Mrs. Curtis; sophomore year, Mrs. Heeter; junior and senior years, Mr. Knepp.

YOUTH OF THE YEAR

STEVE MILLER

This year the valedictorian of the senior class was Steve Miller. Steve had a 95.5% average or the equivalent of an A— letter grade.

Steve came to Jimtown in 1957 at the beginning of his sophomore year. Before this he had attended Goshen High School where he was active in many school functions.

When he came to Jimtown, Steve immediately began to take part in its activities. He has been a member of the National Honor Society, Chess Club, and the Latin Club. During his senior year he was president of the Student Council.

Steve also participated in the junior and senior class plays.

He took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test and became a semi-finalist ranking in the top percentile of all the students in the nation.

Steve is planning to attend either Wabash College or DePaw University where he will take a Liberal Arts course.

Ranking as salutatorian of the class of 1960 was Jim Owens. Jim had a 94% average or a B+ letter grade.

Jim has been at Jimtown since the fifth grade. He has been active in almost all of the school's functions. He was president of his class during his first three years in high school.

In his senior year he was elected to the student council. Also during his senior year he was president of the National Honor Society.

He participated in the junior and senior class plays.

Jim is planning to attend Indiana University where he will study to become a lawyer.

JIM OWENS

Ron Wenger, sergeant-at-arms; Dale Stickel, treasurer; Margie Voorde, vice-president; Judy Fawley, secretary; John Diefenbaugh, president; Mr. Shigley, sponsor.

JUNIORS

Junior class officers for this year were president, John Diefenbaugh; vice-president, Margie Voorde; secretary, Judy Fawley; treasurer, Dale Stickel; and sergeant-at-arms, Ron Wenger.

The sponsor of the junior class again this year was Richard Shigley.

Giving a prom for the seniors and receiving their rings were probably the two outstanding activities of this year's junior class. Other activities of the junior class were selling magazine subscriptions, selling license plates, and having sock hops after the home football games. They took over the snack bar at the end of the first semester. In addition, they went to Fort Wayne to attend a hockey game.

1960 was a big year for the class of 1961.

SOPHOMORES

Sponsoring the 1960 sophomores was Bradford McIntosh. Jim Bowers served as class president, assisted by Carmen Heffner as vice-president, Marilyn Lang as secretary, and the class treasurer, Pam Wenger. Sergeant-at-arms was Kenny Miller.

Activities started with the freshman initiation, at which the sophomores officiated, and a sock hop in the evening was the second high light of the day.

A sales campaign for Jimmie buttons and pins could have been under the motto, "When people want to know, you can show your Jimmie button and tell them who you are."

Other activities included cake raffles after basketball games.

"We've had a grand year!" explained Jim Bowers, thereby summing up the year for the sophomores.

FRESHMEN

To begin the year out right the sophomore class initiated the freshmen. The freshmen, dressed up in gunny sacks, performed for the entire school at a special initiation program. Then, later the sophomores held a dance for the freshmen.

Guiding the freshmen in their projects this year were president, Sally Coige; vice-president, Sue Neely; and secretary, Wendell Norwood. Sponsors were Mr. Webb and Mr. Ellshoff.

To begin earning money, the freshmen held one sock hop. The day after New Years, the freshmen gave a New Year's Dance, with a cake raffle. In the spring, to end out the year's activities, the freshmen had a car wash.

8th GRADE

An all-girl group of officers directed the activities of the eighth grade class this year. Assisted by their sponsors, Mrs. Graber, Mr. Weldy, and Mr. Secor, were Cindy Warrick, president; Diane Hartman, vice-president; and secretary-treasurer, Roxanna Hunsberger.

High point of the year was their trip to Detroit, Michigan, and Canada. They earned the money for this trip by selling candy and desk sets.

The eighth grade was divided into three sections this year in order that the pupils might receive more individual attention.

7th GRADE

This year the seventh grade was so large that it was divided into four sections. The students were divided according to their character, rank in class, and according to teachers.

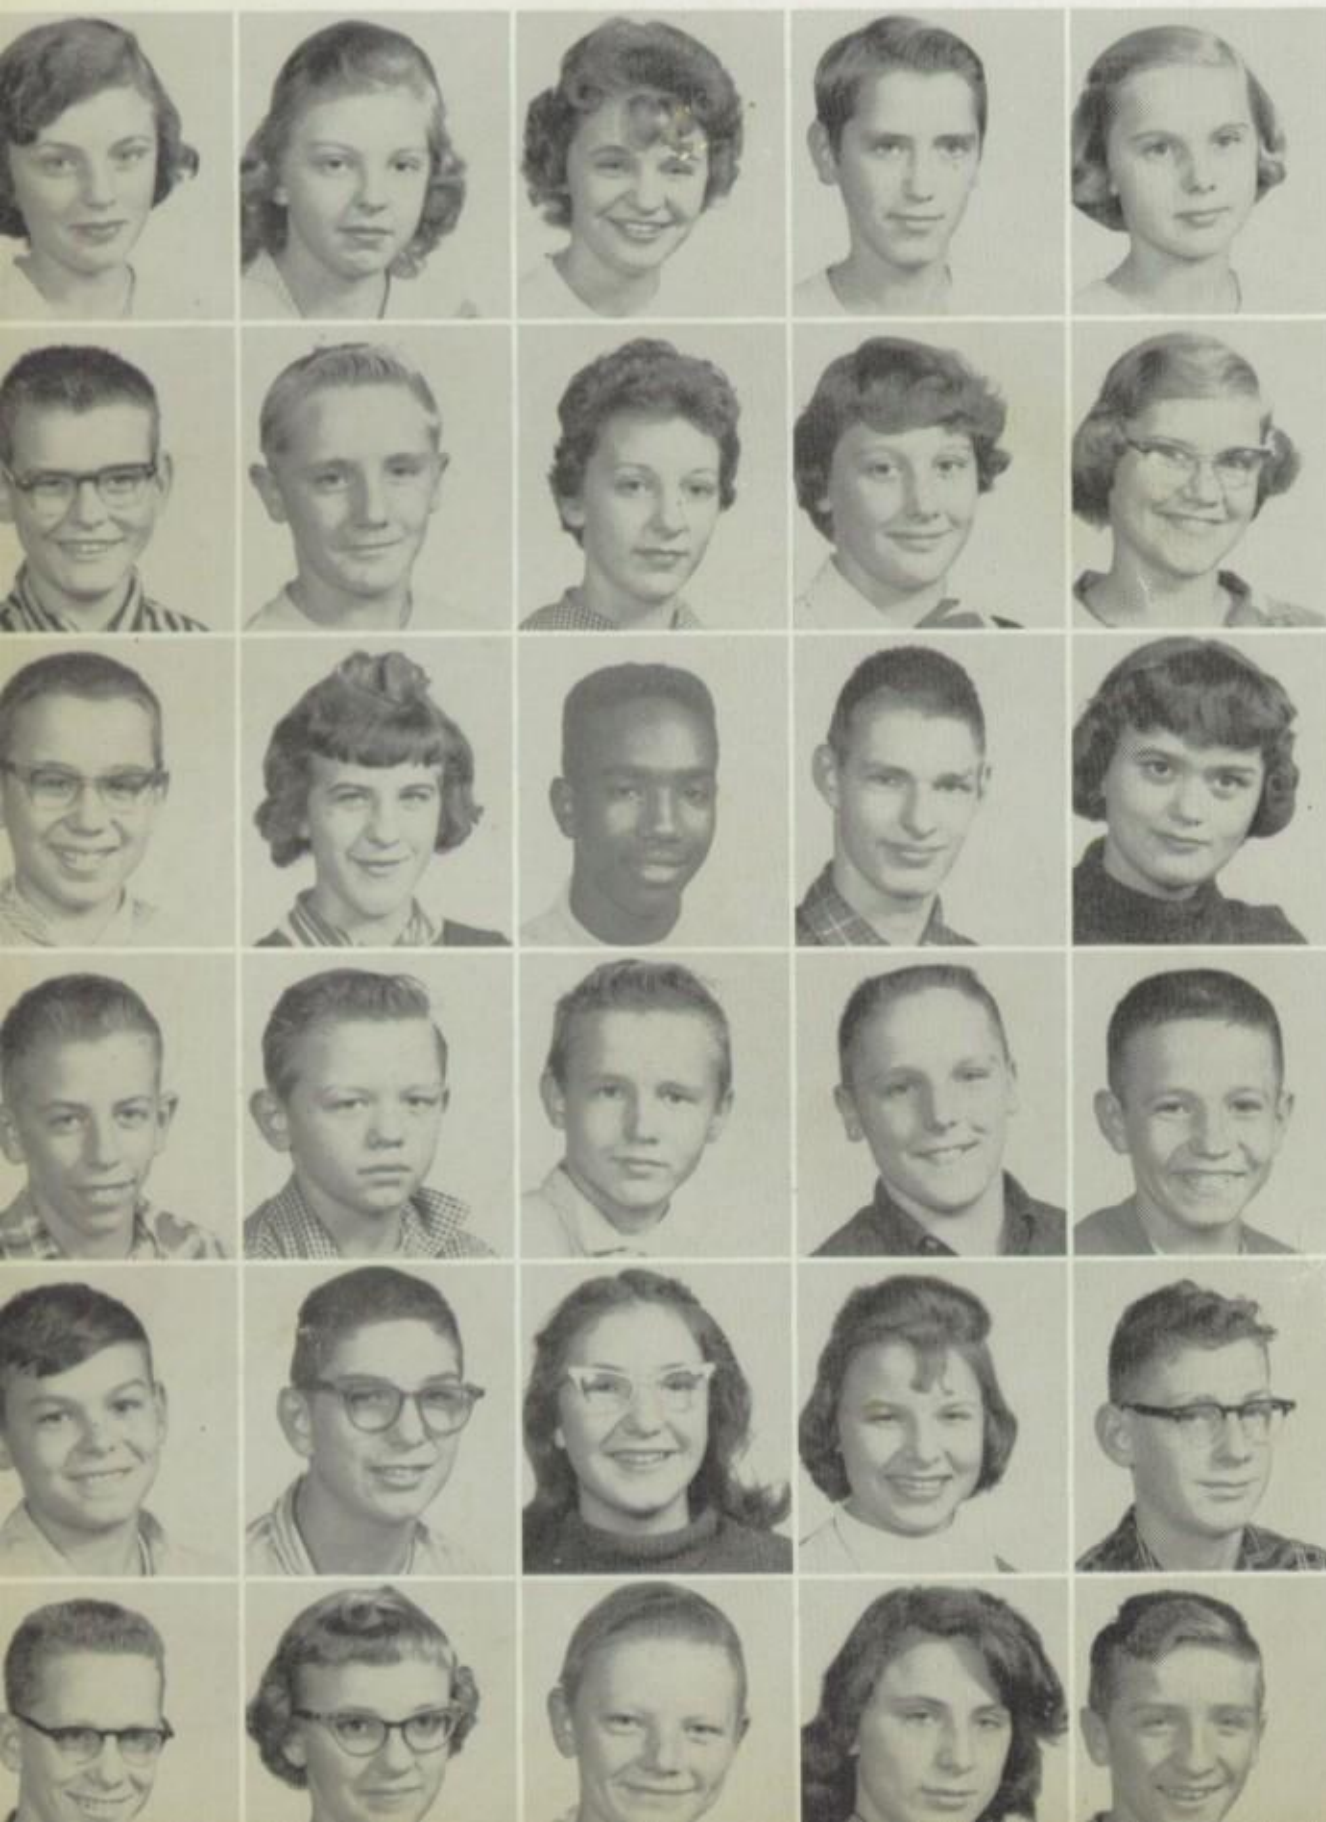

Their home room teachers were Mr. Hess, Mr. Bohs, Mr. Siler and Miss Baumgartner.

For the officers they elected Sue Johnson, president; Sharon Hisey, vice-president; and Carol Wise, secretary-treasurer.

The seventh grade teachers are Mr. Siler, teacher of geography and physical education; Mr. Bohs teaches health and physical education; Mr. Secor teaches arithmetic and geography; Mr. Weldy teaches English and literature; and Mr. Hess teaches crafts and designs.

... VARSITY CAPTAINS

Elected by his team mates to be recipient of the honorary captain and most valuable player award was senior, Fred Voorde. Fred is pictured here with Mr. Angelo Christofeno who is presenting him with the Sheetsman trophy.

Fred Voorde is an all-around sportsman. He went out for track and baseball but he excelled in football and in basketball.

Upon being interviewed these seven senior boys said that they have gained many things from participating in varsity athletics. Among these were friendships and intestinal fortitude.

Friendships were gained by practicing almost every day with the same group of boys.

Intestinal fortitude was gained by the drive and determination to win displayed by these boys in the athletic events in which they were a part.

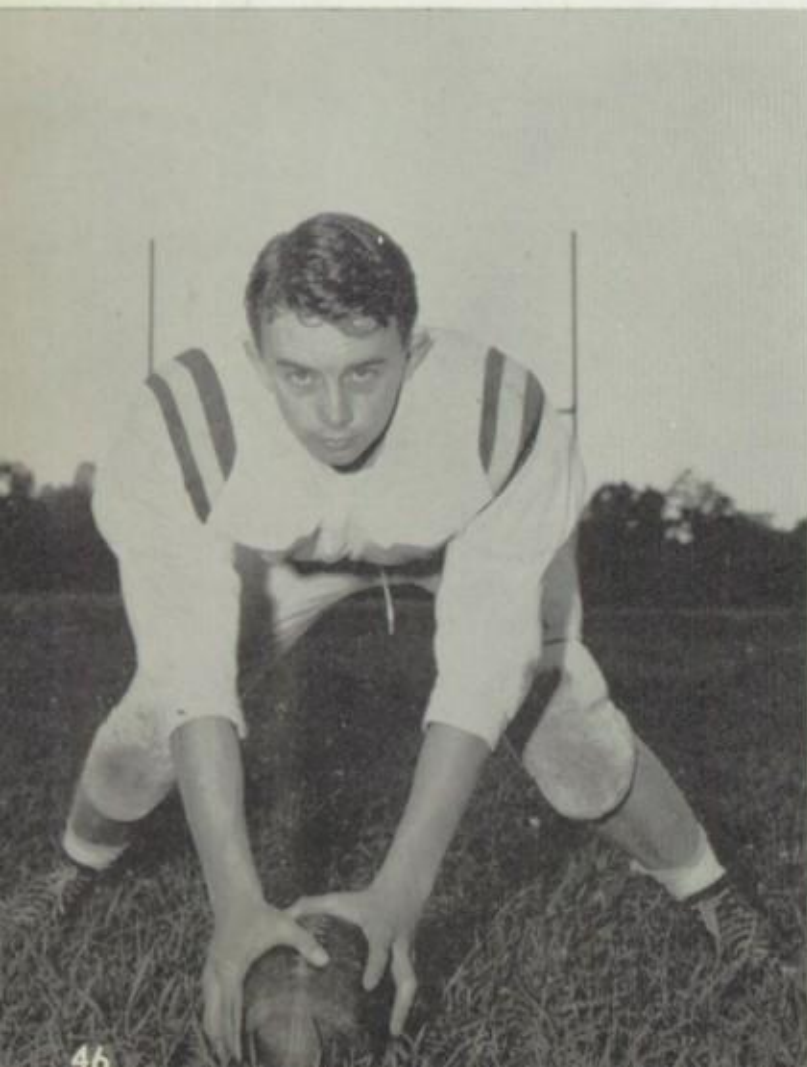

SENIOR . . .

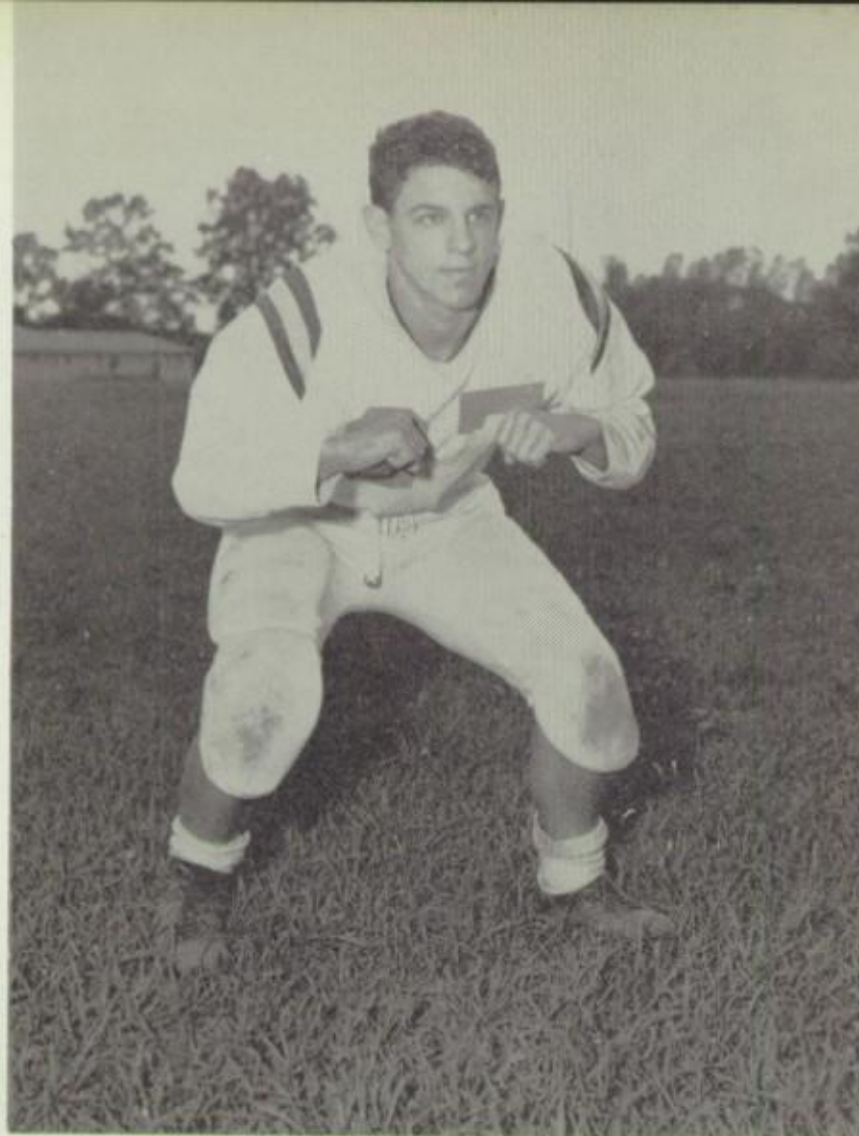

Jim Owens was most successful as a guard on the football team but also participated in track and baseball.

Dave Klein, our sturdy all-around live man in football, also was a successful outside shot in the basketball line-up.

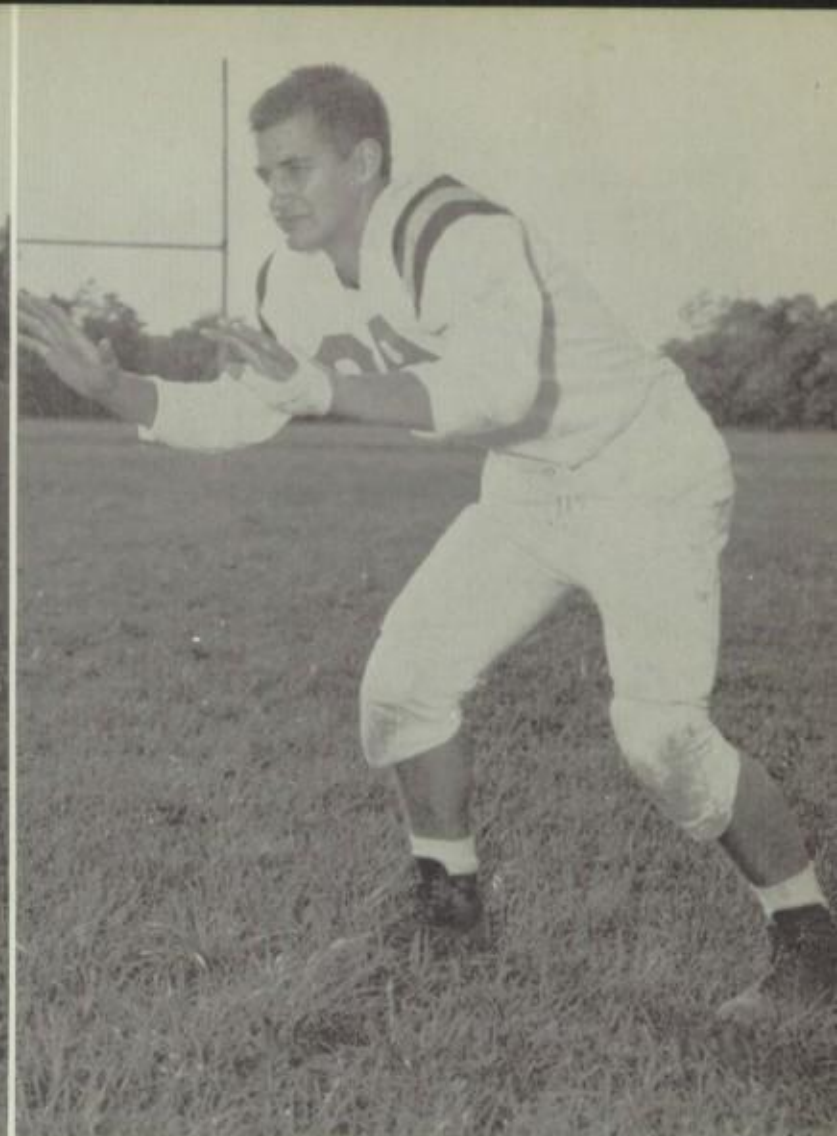

Ron Holdren participated in track and football but his best talents were in baseball and basketball.

Ted Ganger was an excellent catcher on Jimtown's baseball team and as good a guard on the football squad.

Steve Miller, "old tough and ready," was a senior tackle on Jimmies' big team this year. He was on the baseball squad in his junior year also.

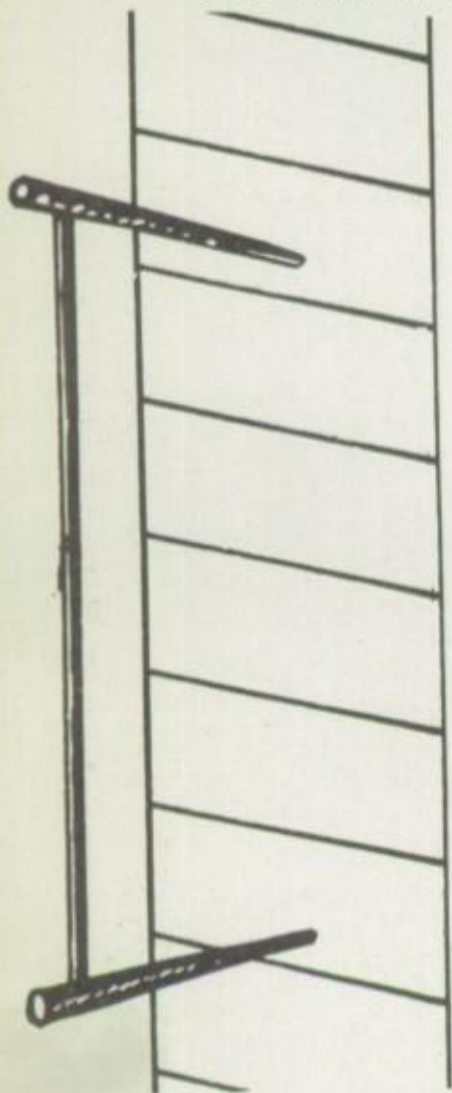

... ATHLETES

Doug Kern was a quick shot and an excellent rebounder. He was on our basketball team for three years.

Coach Richmond and Coach Siler direct practice.

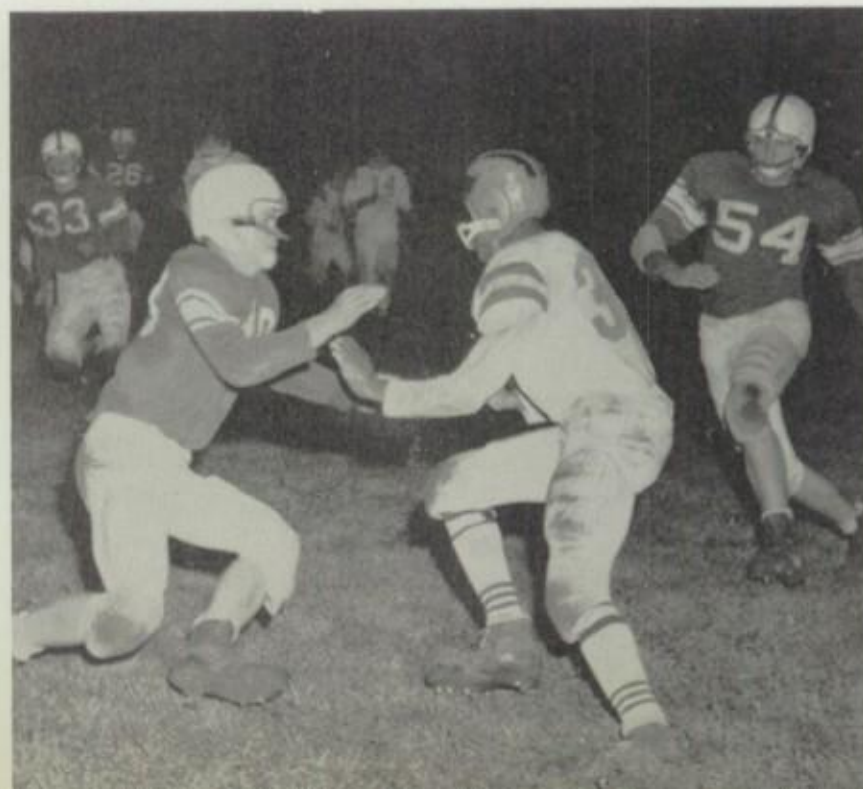

Get that man, John Diefenbaugh.

This season was the best ever in our school's football history. The Jimmies ended with a record of three wins, five losses, and one tie. We placed fourth in the Northern State Conference.

INTRAMURAL

Again this year an intramural basketball program was organized for boys who don't participate in varsity or B-team basketball. The program was under the direction of Mr. Siler.

A trophy was presented to Jack Thompson for having the best free throw percentage which was .708. Medals were given to the members of the championship team. The games consisted of eight minute quarters and were played under regular high school rules. This year's captains were Steve Deak, Steve Miller, Arliss Patrick, Larry Williams, and Jim Bowers.

A single elimination tourney was held in February. In the first round Miller defeated Williams, Deak defeated Patrick, and Miller defeated Bowers. Miller defeated Deak for the title.

Fire it in there, Wayne.

In the Northern State Conference, Jimtown placed third with 34 points. In the County Meet Jimtown also earned third place with 32 points. The only county with 20' 2". The freshman-sophomore team won the county championship with 47½ points.

Four school records were broken. Felder Foster dashed over the high hurdles in 17.7 and over the low hurdles in an excellent 23.0. Max Futrell set a new mile record with 4:54.6 and Fred Voorde broke the 880 yard record with 2:11.8.

Highest scoring varsity performers were Felder Foster and Glen Edwards. Felder Foster was Jimtown's only conference champ in high jump with 5' 8".

Up! Up! and over.

ACTIVITIES

The 1959 Elkhart County Fair queen was Sharon Squires. She is the second Jimtown student in a row to be chosen queen.

Pam Wenger was chosen track queen of Jimtown High School last year. She represented our school at the Northern State Conference track meet.

The juniors presented "A Dance With Our Miss Brooks" last spring under the direction of Mr. Knepp.

The three-act comedy found Miss Brooks with her mind set on going to the dance with Coach Hugo. Things became complicated right away but, became more so when representatives of the Taxpayer's Association showed up claiming the dance was unnecessary. Miss Brooks pointed out the three R's in addition to reading, writing, and 'rithmetic. She said students must be taught responsibilities, rights and recreation.

The night of the dance everything went haywire, but Miss Brooks finally got her man even if he couldn't dance. He had fallen off the ladder and sprained his ankle while putting up decorations for the dance.

JUNIOR PLAY

SENIOR PLAY

Again in 1959 the Class of 1960 presented a play. This time it was "The Form Divine."

Hoopy, Lucilla Webb's daughter, was told by her boy friend that you can always tell the way a girl will look twenty years from now by looking at her mother. Seeing as how this grieved Hoopy, Lucilla decided to enroll in the "Beautiful You Glamour School," determined to turn on her inner fountain of youth and show her daughter, her husband, and mostly herself that she was still beautiful. She proceeded to really get herself in the doghouse. But she finally worked her way out, astonishing everybody with her "good looks."

Mr. Knepp directed this play also

Parents and teachers discuss the reorganization plan.

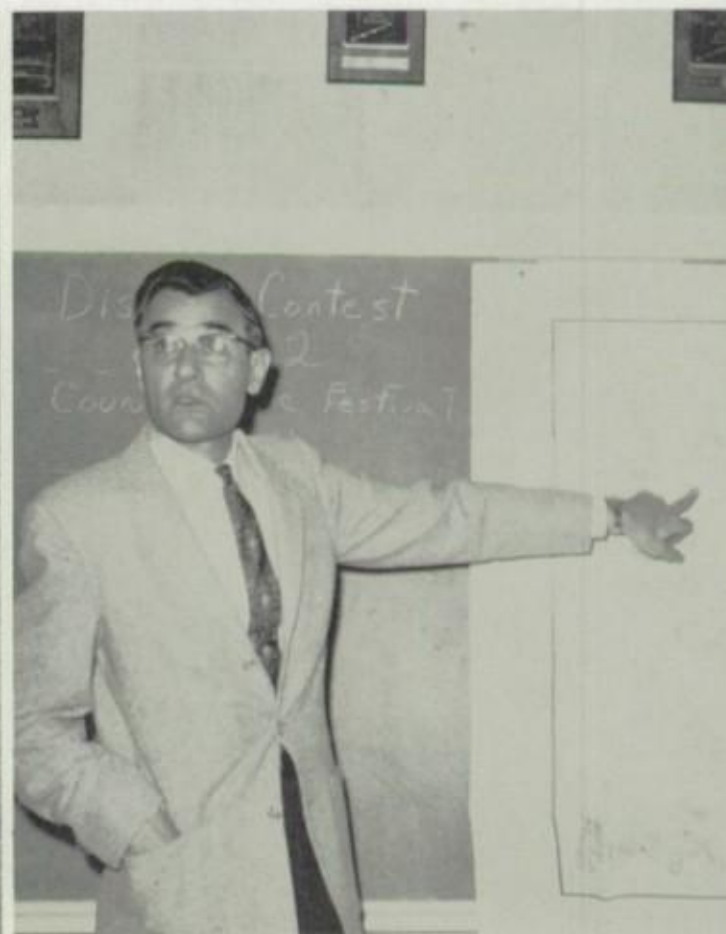

P.T.A.

The P.T.A.'s purpose is to get parents interested in school matters. In their meetings, parents and teachers discuss important problems of modern education. Guest speakers give reports about new projects and developments in the field of education and psychology. And especially important topic of this year's meetings was the County School Reorganization Plan.

President of the P.T.A. was Mr. Louis B. Miller. Vice-president was Mrs. Stewart McGuire and the treasurer was Mrs. Paul Hunsberger.

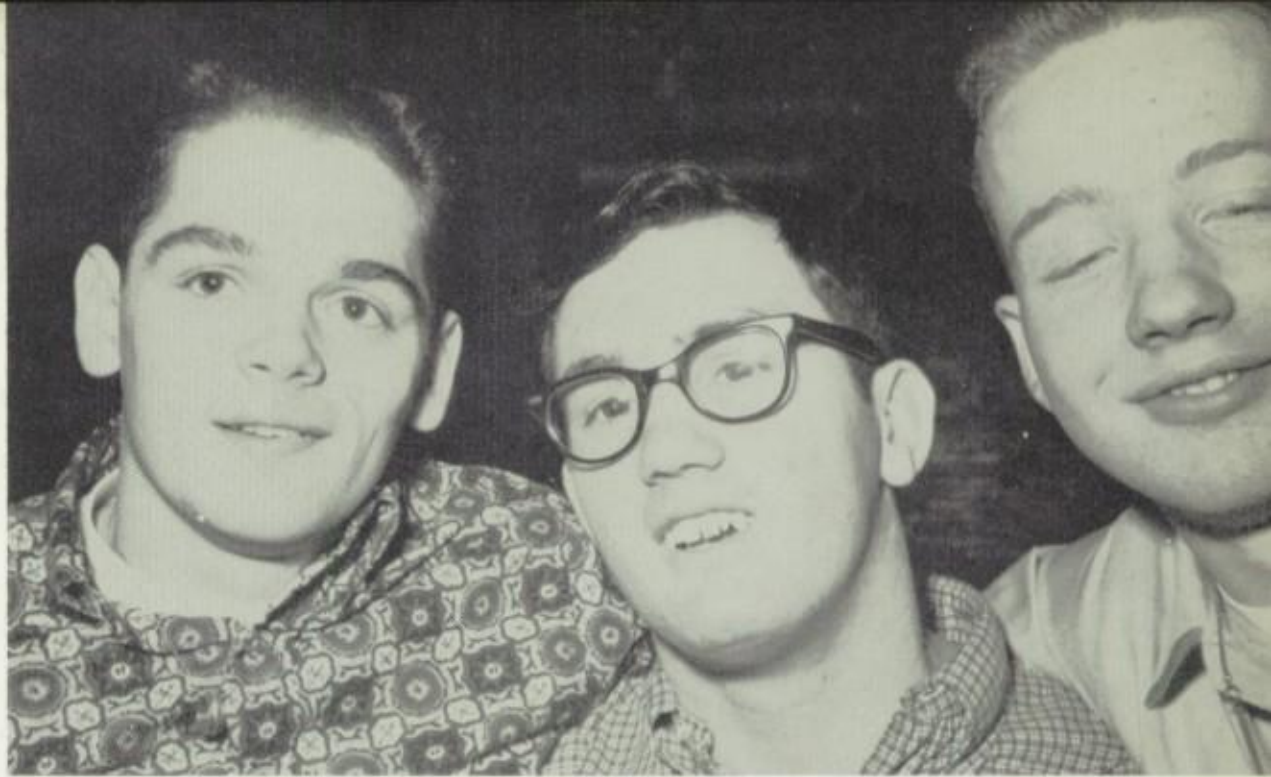

Refreshments are important at P.T.A., too, aren't they, Mr. and Mrs. Christofeno?

SPRING

The high school choir presented seven numbers at their annual spring concert last year. They sang the following selections. "Adoramus Te," "Bless Ye The Lord," "Since All is Passing," "It's A Grand Night for Singing," "Early One Morning," "No Man Is An Island," and "Dry Bones."

Those who received superior ratings at the district solo and ensemble contest were entitled to sing their solos at the concert. The soloists were as follows: vocal, Diana Dobbins, Sharon Newman, and Dana Clipp. Doris Stickel played a piano solo.

People wonder if the batons will be dropped.

The band combined with the choir and presented their spring concert. They played the following selections: "Little Champ," "Persian Market," "Hall of Fame," "Washington Post," "Syncopated Clock," "This Old Man," "Over the Waves," "Jack and the Beanstalk," "Narrator," and "Circus Parade."

A drum ensemble consisting of Larry Inman, Eric Knight, Richard Long, and Robert Newcomer received a superior rating at contest entitling them to perform at the concert.

Where did the trampoline go?

Up in the air we go.

That's the way, John Diefenbaugh.

Everybody enjoyed Yvonne and Jerry Koehler's performances on the trampoline. The Koehlers showed the basic steps in learning about the trampoline, plus some really difficult tricks. Everything they did looked so easy, but when some students tried some tricks, they found that it was not easy at all.

Mr. Luse presents a chevron to Fred Voorde.

The annual basketball banquet was held last March. It was held to honor and present awards to the basketball players for their work and achievements in basketball. The public was invited and after a hearty meal the awards were made by the coaches.

Coach Siler presents Don Voorde with his junior high letter.

BASKETBALL BANQUET

King Dancier receives his junior high letter.

Bill Millner, former Elkhart High School coach, was the main speaker at the basketball banquet last March.

Speaker Bill Millner brings out some good points.

One day in October all the green freshmen were initiated. All day the upperclassmen lorded over them.

The day before initiation day, the freshmen were informed as to what they were to wear and what they were to do.

The big day finally came and all freshmen were herded to the gym and were made to do various stunts, much to the pleasure of the upperclasses. Some of the stunts were the girls doing the can-can, boys pantomiming records, and girls rolling jawbreakers down the gym floor. A party was held the next day to officially welcome the freshmen into high school.

Don't fight me, baby, and look, Ma! no cavities.

NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK

After class Jane Heffner confers with Mrs. Luse.

November 8 to 15 was National Education Week. In observance of this, Jimtown had an open house Tuesday, November 10. Classes were held from noon until eight in the evening. The classes were held then to give the parents an opportunity to visit the classes and meet the teachers. After school was dismissed, the teachers stayed to talk to the parents and answer any questions they might have concerning their sons or daughters. This is one school day that everyone enjoyed.

Jerry Foster receives free throw trophy.

BASKETBALL BANQUET

This year at the annual basketball banquet the different ball teams were honored. Awards were given to Jerry Foster for having the best free throw percentage and G. A. A. basketball team.

Awards were given to Jerry Foster for having the best free throw percentage and to Fred Voorde for being elected honorary captain and most valuable player by his team mates.

Being selected as most valuable player of the girl's basketball team was Cheryl Davidson. Honorary co-captains were Dana Clipp and Doris Klein.

Paul Hendershott receives his chevron.

Congratulations, Fred Voorde.

His being here has been a good experience for both students and faculty.

Gerhard tells us that we should taste German sauerkraut.

Gerhard has a part in the Christmas play.

What do you think of a bus trip like this, Gerhard?

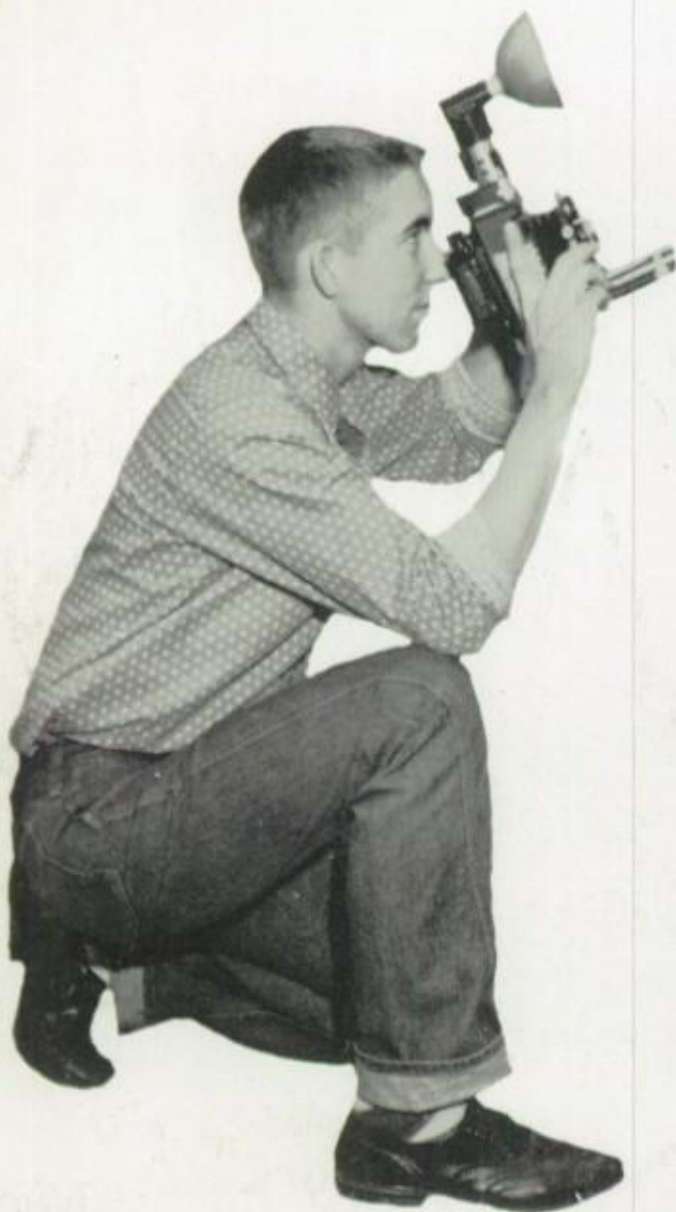

CLUBS

Putting on the final touches.

YEARBOOK

JOHN TROUP

In 1959 our yearbook staff was headed by Dana Clipp, editor, and Mrs. Heeter, sponsor.

The journalism class was responsible for the yearbook. The theme which the class chose for the yearbook was "Education."

The first week in September the entire senior class was excused from school for two days to sell advertisements for the yearbook. They were divided into groups of seven with each group covering a designated territory. Work and fun went hand in hand as the class sold $2,357 worth of ads.

Everyone on the staff worked hard throughout the entire year. Some people were numbering pictures and pages, some were drawing up advertisements, and some were identifying pictures. All in all a lot of hard work was put in to what they feel is the best yearbook yet.

Making sure, John?

STUDENT COUNCIL

John Diefenbaugh, vice-president; Connie Kauffman, secretary; Steve Miller, president; Jane Heffner, treasurer.

This year for the first time the Student Council set up a student court. It was operated like a regular court with five judges and a clerk. In the beginning each student was given twenty-five merits. Whenever the time came when he had lost twenty of them, he was to schedule a conference with the principal. Also this year the Student Council arranged all of the holiday programs which were enjoyed by the entire student body.

Since the National Honor Society was started in 1959, it has been a growing organization. At present they have between 15 and 20 members. The members must maintain a B average in all subjects.

This past year the Honor Society sponsored a Hi-Fi Club dance and ushered at school programs. Being in the Honor Society isn't based wholly on grades. It is also based on leadership, character, service, and scholarship.

Darlene BeMiller, treasurer; Jane Heffner, secretary; Jim Owens, president; Ted Ganger, vice-president.

LIBRARY STAFF

Several new books have been added to the library this year, both fiction and non-fiction. One of the best acquisitions to the library has been the set of Dictionary of American Biography which consists of eleven volumes, and was presented to the library by the class of 1958 under the sponsorship of Mr. Arthur K. Knepp.

There are twenty-one library assistants who work on the average two or three periods a week.

Students and the faculty have made good use of the library.

This year Mrs. Lowery supervised the library the first semester and Miss Bickel supervised it the second semester.

Our school librarian, Miss Bickel.

Connie Kauffman and Sharon Squires, co-editors.

The journalism class consisted of thirteen students who were responsible for the writing end of the school paper. The co-editors, Connie Kauffman and Sharon Squires, assigned every student a certain article to do.

After the articles were read, the co-editors made a "dummy."

The dummy was then sent to the office practice class for the production. This was where the paper was finished. After the papers were finished, the journalism class sold them at noon.

CHESS CLUB

This was the second year for the Chess Club at Jimtown. There were about eleven members. The Chess Club is sponsored by Mr. Bruce Martin. Membership is open to high school students that aren't failing in any subject. The officers elected this year were president, Pete Clark; vice-president, Tom Heffner; secretary and treasurer, Karen Hunt; sergeant-at-arms, Myron Miller; Student Council representative, Silas Mathews.

Mr. Martin and the students hope that some day they can hold tournaments with other schools.

GIRLS' CHEERBLOCK

The girls' cheerblock consisted of junior high and high school girls totaling sixty-five in all. The girls sat in a block at all the home games and helped cheer the team on to victory. For the county tourney fifty-three girls were in the cheerblock at the big Northside gymnasium. They wore white blouses with maroon flowers attached. The flowers were maroon mums with a white "J" in the center.

The girls had a cake walk before the sectional tourney. The walk was to raise money for decorations for the sectional. They made maroon and white streamers for the block.

Their plans included having speakers and singing songs, the music for which was provided by some of their own members. Programs of different kinds were planned by the sponsors, Mr. Hess and Mr. Weldy, and the officers. The sponsors alternated meeting with the club on Wednesdays. Total membership of the club is around sixty this year.

This year the high school Youth For Christ Club was sponsored by Mr. Hess. The club is under the direct leadership of Mr. Bill Balmer, director of the Elkhart County Y.F.C. Clubs.

The officers for this year were Judy Fawley, president; Pam Wenger, vice-president; Cheryl Davidson, secretary; and Florence Billger, reporter.

The Y.F.C. had a quiz team composed of Lois Hunsburger, captain; Diana Dobbins, Florence Billger, Sharon Stouder, Janice Stouder, Toby Putzey, Beverly Sissom, and Paul Loy.

Each month there were three different people in charge of planning the programs which were given at each meeting. Meetings were held twice a month in the music room.

These programs were centered around games, scripture readings, talks by pastors, skits, and singing.

Four members started a quartet. They were Diana Dobbins, Shari Dobbins, Claude Brewton, and Larry Abner.

The members of the Future Homemakers of America Club were striving all year to meet honor Chapter requirements.

A "Daddy Date Night," with a guidance counselor as guest of honor, Christmas around the world, and a galloping supper with installation of officers and initiation of new members were some of the many things done to meet honor Chapter requirements.

Aside from their requirements the girls conducted a food and clothing drive at Christmas time for the needy families of the community. They also gave a mixed party for the Nappanee Chapter.

Throughout the year the girls had the opportunity to visit colleges and universities where the F.H.A. holds district conventions, conventions, and work shops.

Connie Kauffman is now serving as State Vice-President and District President. Mary Ann Forrester holds the office of District Treasurer.

STITCH AND CHATTER

Jane Heffner, vice-president; Pam Wenger, president; Rose DeBowe, secretary.

This year was a year of honors for the Stitch and Chatter 4-H Club.

There were nineteen members in the club this year. Their sponsor was Mrs. Christofeno. Two of the girls, Doris Stickel and Carolyn Stickel, had ten years of 4-H. Three others, Vicki Davis, Rita Cook, and Connie Kauffman each had nine years.

In the 4-H Fair Queen Contest they had six girls entered. Four of these six placed in the top ten. They were Connie Kauffman, Vicki Davis, Rita Cook, and Sharon Squires, who was chosen queen.

At the dress revue, Sharon Squires was named Grand Champion and Mary Ann Forrester, Reserve Grand Champion. They also had two other girls in the honor group.

CHOIR

This year the choir was very active. They began by singing some songs at the Thanksgiving program. Then they gave a Christmas concert on December 18 with the elementary choir. On January 30 they went to Goshen for the solo and ensemble contest. Then February 20 the state contest for solos and ensembles was held at Indianapolis. This year the district contest for high school choirs was held April 2 at Columbia City while the state choir contest was held April 9 at Concord. The big event of the year was the County Music Festival on March 11. The annual spring concert was held May 13. Rounding out the year's activities was singing at Baccalaureate, May 22.

With a new constitution tucked under its arm, the G.A.A. started the year off with a bang. Officers were elected at the last meeting of '59. Play night was switched from Wednesday to Thursday.

Activities included in G.A.A. were basketball, volleyball, and bowling.

The volleyball team played Madison Twp., Elkhart, and Wakarusa.

The basketball team had an excellent season with victories over South Bend, Washington, Madison Twp., and many others.

The bowling team entered two county tourneys with a success in each.

They sponsored a basketball game between the Rockettes, in which Miss Baumgartner is a member, and the Chicago Starettes.

Awards were given for girls receiving a set number of points. 400 points were required for a wall plaque, 300 for a J sweater, and 200 for a necklace. The awards are presented at the basketball banquet in the spring.
